

Peaceful Assembly at Pipeline Trial, Leesburg, GA, July 10th 2014

27 June 2014, Valdosta, Georgia: A landowner is suing Sabal Trail Transmission for going on their land after being told not to. It's a public hearing, so interested parties can come from anywhere to attend in a peaceful, lawful assembly. If the place or date gets changed, everyone is invited to come anyway.

Date: Thursday 10 July 2014

Times: 10AM assemble outside
11AM hearing inside

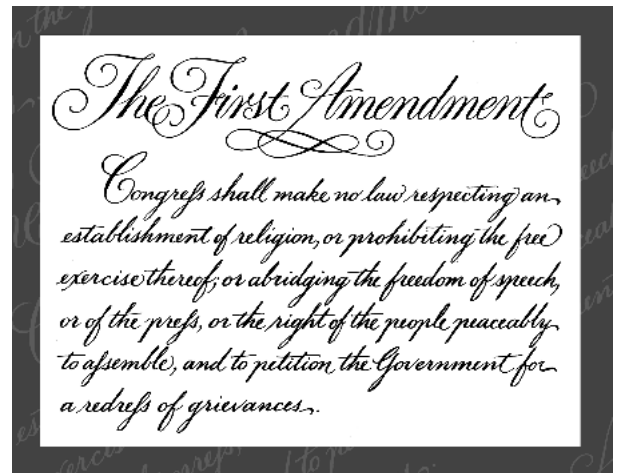

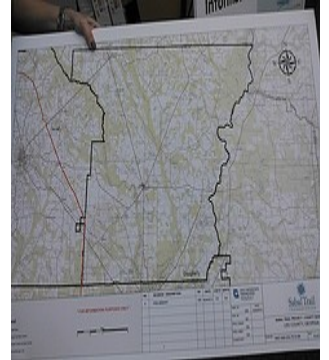

Where: Lee County Courthouse
100 Leslie Highway
Leesburg, Georgia 31763

Case: Sabal Trail Transmission v. James E. Bell II and Robert Bell
Case number 14CV208RS

What: Alabamians, Georgians, Floridians, and everyone opposed to this unnecessary fracked methane pipeline, here is an opportunity to show you don't want this hazardous destruction of the environment and property rights so a few companies can profit at everyone else's expense.

You can also do some of these other things:

- Bring signs, posters, horses, or tractors
